Litter info (King/Queen): _____

- Isolate the kitten for a period not less than 14 days.
- Kitten is guaranteed to be of good health at the time of sale, and for a period of 72 hours. You must have the kitten examined by a certified veterinarian within 72 hours of the kitten delivery. Please note that failure to do this will render all guarantees null and void.* If the kitten is found to be ill, during that time (First 72 hours), it must be reported immediately, with written confirmation from a certified veterinarian. If the condition is treatable, Pedigree Bengals will reimburse for reasonable and customary vet medical charges. If the kitten is found to be medically deficient with an un-treatable or life-threatening condition steps will be taken to provide for the return of the kitten. Upon the return of the ill kitten a replacement kitten of equal value will be provided as the next litter permits, but not to exceed 6 months.
- Under no circumstances will this kitten be sold, lent, given, or abandoned to a shelter, pound, animal humane organization, veterinarian, researcher organization, or any similar organization or person. Should purchaser be unable to keep kitten/cat the Seller is to be notified and at the Sellers discretion, kitten is to be returned to seller or suitable new home is to be approved by seller.

- Never have any of the kitten's paws de-clawed, it's inhumane for many reasons.
- Kitten will be current on vaccinations at time of pick-up. It is the Buyers responsibility to obtain proper vaccinations for the kitten on a schedule determined to be proper by a certified veterinarian.
- Kitten is to be provided with a safe and healthy environment. Kept clean, well fed with nutritious food and fresh water. Bengals are a wild breed and thrive on meat for example, cooked chicken for deboned fish.
- This kitten is only allowed to be bred to T.I.C.A registered Bengals. He is not allowed to be bred to any other breed of cat at anytime.
- No Cash Refunds.
- Should the Buyer elect to breed a female TICA registered Bengal with a male at Pedigree Bengal for the female's FIRST breeding. This breeding may take place on her 3rd heat or when she reaches 1+ years of age, whichever comes first. The total amount of the stud service is a flat $1000. The breeding fee is due at the time of drop off of the cat, unless previous arrangements have been made. The female will be brought to Pedigree Bengals for the breeding when possible. Pedigree Bengals will guarantee 2 kittens born (no live birth guarantee) or will allow a second, no cost breed back within 12 months for birth of first litter. Verification required*
